LITERARY, DOMESTIC & FASHIONABLE FAMILY MAGAZINE.

Godey's Lady's Book, For 1843.

EDITED BY MRS. S. J. HALE & OTHERS. THE LONG ESTABLISHED ARCHITECT OF TASTE, FASHION, AND THE BELLES LETTRES. FOR THE LADIES OF AMERICA.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK having been for so long a series of years, universally recognized as the exclusive and indisputable guide to the taste, in matters of taste, fashion, and literature, the only work conducted by distinguished female authors, who have won for themselves a high place among the guiding spirits of the age—the only work which in point of fact has been exclusively devoted to the ladies—its favor with its patrons has not been less remarkable than its perfect adaptation to their feelings and tastes and their requirements.

In entering upon a new year, the publisher, without diminishing in the least the interest and useful character of the work, has long resorted from having under his editorial supervision the most successful and elegant of our American female writers, with each successive number appears, present in the several departments of Literature, Fashion, and Pictorial Embellishment, a constant and ever varying succession of new and striking features. Nor does he promise without ample ability to perform. The best literary talent, the best efforts of the most distinguished artists in the country—and, to crown as well as adorn the whole, the most perfect arrangements for the reception of the American. London and Paris Fashions, far in advance of any other publication in this country, enable him to assure the patrons of the LADY'S BOOK that the forthcoming volume will more than justify its well earned title of the Magazine of Magazines for the ladies of our country.

It has passed into custom to assert that dress is a matter of trifling importance, but this every lady knows to be utterly false. Taste in dress is universally felt to be the index of a thousand desirable qualities in woman, while a deficiency in this respect always injures one in the estimation of strangers, and even of her intimate friends—the beauty of Helen and the wit of Agassia, would hardly commend to general favor an acknowledged dowdy in dress. Hence the importance of an accredited guide to the Fashions.

This useful office, already filled for fourteen years, with universal acceptance, by the Lady's Book, the publisher pledges himself to discharge in future, in a style surpassing all his former efforts. The ladies know perfectly well that our Magazine is the highest authority in Fashion.

No lady considers herself well dressed who contravenes this authority, and, in our own city, in N. York, Boston, Baltimore, Cincinnati, Louisville, Lexington, St. Louis, New Orleans, Mobile, Richmond, Charleston, Savannah, and the other metropolitan cities of the various States, the tasteful Fashion Plates of the Lady's Book dictate the laws of dress.

In future the figures will be thrown into tasteful groups, displaying the graces of dress to the best advantage, and the back grounds of the plates will present interesting views, designed by the first Paris Artists.

As further assurance of thorough excellence in this department, the publisher has secured the services of Miss LESLIE, who will illustrate the Fashion Plates, in her usual felicitous and graphic style, uniting a thorough knowledge of the subject, with a clear, graceful and intelligent manner of treating it. Her descriptions are worthy of the productions of her own glowing pencil, which drew the earliest Fashion Plates for the Lady's Book.

The publisher's correspondent in Paris is possessed of such ample means of obtaining the real and present Paris Fashions, and of transmitting them in advance of all competitors, that the ladies may continue, as they have always done, to copy from our plates what has received the sanction of indisputable ton, the last, the newest, the best fashions, fresh from Paris.

The arrangements for producing a most brilliant and attractive series of Line and Mezzotint Engravings are now complete. Pictures fresh from the easels of our first rate American Artists, are now actually in the hands of the ablest American engravers, the subjects embracing not only the usual popular and domestic topics, but others which have intervened into the very heartstrings of American nationality, treating as they do of stirring incidents in the glorious and heroic age of America.

With respect to the general literary and moral tone of the Lady's Book, for 1843, it will maintain its usual consistent character of a domestic and fashionable family magazine. While such contributors as Miss Leslie, Miss Sedgwick, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Emory, Mrs. E. F. Ellet, Mrs. Seymour, Mrs. V. E. Howard, Mrs. Seba Smith, Mrs. A. M. F. Anan, Mrs. C. Lee Huntz, Mrs. Parsons, and Mrs. S. J. Hale continue their contributions, the beautiful and the useful, all that charms the fancy and all that mends the heart and guides the best affections of our nature, will continue to adorn and dignify our pages.

The lovers of historical romance, and those who regard our nation's glory as the prime objects of our nation's literature, will have their peculiar tastes gratified by the contributions of Dr. Robert M. Bird, the author of 'the Gladiator,' 'Calver' &c. The admirers of Southern scenery and manners will recognize with pleasure, among our correspondents, the name of W. Gilmore Simms, the novelist, author of 'Guy Rivers,' 'Yemassee,' &c.

Those who are partial to graceful, easy, nonchalant, gentlemanly story telling, will always hail with pleasure the monthly return of N. P. Willis, the most pungent, lively and fertile of all magazine writers.

The admirers of the high toned, moral and domestic Nouvellette, will recognize with pleasure, among our contributors, the name of T. S. Arthur, author of 'Six Nights with the Washingtonians,' &c. Contributions are also ready from the pens of Professor Alexander Dallas Bache, late Principal of the Philadelphia High School, Professor John Sanderson, author of 'a Year in Paris,' Professor John Frost, editor of the 'Young People's Book.'

Our limits will not give us space enough to enumerate the names of a tithe of our contributors. Our list of foreign contributors is enriched with the names of Joanna Baile, Mary Russell Mitford, Mary Howitt, Maria Edgeworth, Hon. Mrs. C. Norton, Mrs. S. C. Hall, recognised in Europe as the elite of British female authors.

The publisher's means of increasing the beauty and value of the Lady's Book are accumulating year by year. To his already inestimable list of contributors, he is constantly receiving accessions both at home and abroad.

His arrangements with respect to ORIGINAL PAINTINGS, from such Artists as Rothwell, Frankenstein, Croome, Chapman, MacLise, Huntington, are now complete, and he numbers among the engravers whose services are constantly retained, Tucker, Smith, Warner, Dick, Sadt, Ellis, Classen, Gimbredge, Jones.

His whole system of arrangements with respect to Fashion Plates is now developed and perfected. The Lady's Book will therefore continue to maintain that pre-eminence in merit and in popularity which fourteen years of uninterrupted attention on the part of the publisher has earned—it will still remain, as heretofore, the FAVORITE OF THE FAIR.

National Magazine
OF
LITERATURE, ART AND FASHION.
Graham's Lady's and Gentleman's Magazine.
PROSPECTUS FOR 1843.

EDITORS:
J. FENNIMORE COOPER, RICH'D.
H. DANA, WM. CULLEN BRYANT, H. W. LONGFELLOW, CHARLES F. HOFFMAN, T. C. GRATTAN.

GRAHAM'S is the oldest and most popular of the American Literary Magazines. The number for January, 1843, will be the first of the 35th volume. Its long and universally successful career, from its commencement with a few hundred subscribers, until the present time, when it has a circulation of fifty thousand copies a month, is perhaps good evidence of its great and increasing merit as the publisher has it in his power to offer. To his old subscribers, he trusts no assurance is necessary of his determination to maintain its present ascendancy over all the rival periodicals of the country. The engagement, during the past year, of such men as BAYNT, COOP-ER, DANA, LONGFELLOW, HOFFMAN, MANCIE, &c., of high reputation in the literary world, as regular contributors, in addition to a previous list embracing many of the first names in the nation, is a sufficient guarantee that the work will continue to be the principle medium of communication between the best authors and the public. Among the attractions of the thirty-fifth volume, will be a serial by Mr. J. F. Cooper, 'My Country,' Mr. Hoffman, 'Mr. Herbert, Miss Leslie,' 'My Claver,' Mrs. Emory, 'Mrs. Ellet and Mrs. Sigourney,' poems by Mr. Bryant, Mr. Dana, Mr.
Longfellow, Mr. Street, Mrs. Seba Smith, Mrs.
Osgood, and Mrs. Sigourney; essays by Mr. Kay, Mr. Jones, Mr. Tuckerman, Mr. Poe, &c. &c.

[Here follows a more full list of the names of contributors, the most distinguished of the country which we omit for want of room.]

Graham's Lady's and Gentleman's Magazine has been from its establishment more than any other the favorite periodical of the greater sex.
Through its plan and the high quality of its articles of the most important character, such as have raised Blackwood's and some other foreign journals to their high influence and reputation, its pages will be principally devoted to what is usually termed light literature. It will be distinguished from other publications of similar aims by the literary and artistic merit of its contents. While those of other works are known or anonymous, the contributions to this are the most eminent authors of our age and country, the very creators, founders, of our National Literature. Especially is it celebrated as containing the choicest productions of the finest female writers of the time. Every number contains gems which may be appealed to with pride by the sex as vindicating their intellectual eminence.

SELENDI EMBELLISHMENTS.

In the department of Engravings it is well known that Graham's Magazine has far surpassed any periodical work ever published in this or any other country. The highest estimation of civil publishers seems thus far to have been to maintain a respectable imitation of the numerous costly and beautiful works of art with which the successive numbers of this journal have been graced. In the course of the succeeding volumes many important new features will be introduced. Sartain and Sadt the most celebrated Mezzotint Engravers in the Union, and equals of the best in Europe, will continue to furnish their exquisite productions and Rawdon, Wright and Hatch, G. Parker, A. L.
Dick, Gimbredge, Jackson, The publishers of New York, and Dowson, Welch and Ward, Tucker and others, of Philadelphia—all among the most eminent line engravers of the present century, have been engaged to furnish a succession of highly finished steel engravings, superior to any that have hitherto appeared in periodicals. Among the pictures that will be engraved for the volumes in 1843, are several ORIGINAL PAINTINGS, by Ingham, Inman, Cole, Thompson, Freeman, Franginet, and other distinguished artists. The American periodicals have hitherto contained, save in a very few instances, only engravings copied from foreign prints. The publishers of Graham's Magazine will be the first to reform this practice, and to make his work strictly original in its embellishments as well as its literary contents.

OUR PORTRAIT GALLERY.—One of the new features of the coming volumes will be the introduction of Portraits of the contributors to Graham's Magazine, which of course, will include nearly all the eminent writers of the day. The 35th volume will include, from the portraits of Parker, Johnson and others, portraits engraved in the highest style of the art of Mr. Cooper, Professor Longfellow, 'Maria Del Occidente,' Mrs. Sigourney, Miss Sedgwick, Mrs. Seba Smith, Mrs. Emory and several others—all from paintings executed expressly for the purpose.

THE EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT will continue to embrace notes on current literature etc., and reviews of all new American and foreign works of general interest or value. The criticisms of Graham's Magazine are acknowledged in all parts of the country to be superior in acumen, honesty and independence to those of any contemporary. Indeed, while a majority of the monthly and quarterly journals have become mere advertising mediums for the booksellers, in which every thing 'in print' is indiscriminately praised, this periodical is looked upon as a just and discriminating arbitrator between authors and readers, in which both have implicit confidence.

TERMS.

Graham's Magazine will be published on the first of each month in every quarter of the Union.
The most distant subscribers will therefore receive it on that day, as well as those who reside in Philadelphia. The proprietor being more desirous of presenting the best and most beautiful than the cheapest work in the country, and anxious to bring it within the reach of all, offers the following as the lowest terms at which it can be afforded—THREE DOLLARS per annum in advance for a single copy, or two copies yearly for five dollars, five copies for ten dollars, eight for fifteen dollars, or eleven for twenty dollars, (labels furnished as usual) invariably in advance. Postage of all letters to be pre-paid. GEORGE R. GRAHAM,
